

Speech to text transcription

Description:

- Create a simple tool that converts audio recordings into text.
- Use basic libraries for speech recognition (e.g., SpeechRecognition in Python)

Outcome:

The speech is converted into text message and the text message is transcribed in speech format.

CODES:

!pip install SpeechRecognition

!sudo apt-get install libportaudio2

import speech_recognition as sr
import IPython

male_path = "../input/audio-files/male.wav" IPython.display.Audio(male_path)

female_path = '../input/audio-files/female.wav' IPython.display.Audio(female_path)
r = sr.Recognizer()
def speech_to_text(audio_file):
    Opens and listens to an audio file and translates it to text
    Args: audio file
    Returns: text of transcribed audio file
    with sr.AudioFile(audio_file) as source:
            text = r.recognize_google(audio_text)
            print('Converting audio transcripts into text ...')
            print('Sorry.. run again...')
